Aloha Pride Street Festival this Saturday!

Join Hawai'i Health and Harm Reduction Center (HHRC) at this year's Aloha Pride Street Festival this Saturday in Kaka'ako. Mahalo to Honolulu Beerworks, which is dedicating a portion of its proceeds from this Saturday's event to HHRC.

The Halloween-themed community event, which runs from 11:00 AM – 9:00 PM at 328 Cooke St., will feature food made with fresh ingredients and a beer selection including Belgian-style farmhouse ales and seasonal fresh-hop beers. The live music begins at 7 PM and will be headlined by longtime island favorite Kapena. Led by Kelly Boy DeLima, the group won four Nā Hōkū Hanohano awards in 2019 for “Palena ‘Ole.”

In celebration of Pride Month, Honolulu Beerworks is launching a special brew benefiting HHHRC called “Sparkles”—a blood orange, rainbow glitter saison. This beer will be available on draft and sold in limited release bottles on Aloha Pride Day at Honolulu Beerworks. A portion of all “Sparkles” bottle and draft sales through October will be donated directly to HHHRC.

In addition to the Aloha Pride festivities, Maui Bay Shirt Co. and Buti Groove Hawaii will be selling a special limited edition Aloha Pride shirt. 100% of proceeds from this shirt go directly to the Hawai'i Health & Harm Reduction Center.
